Hi guys and gals!

I've found the perfect song for xtina while i was surfing it is absolutely top!!

heres the rundown and background info:

Its a song called "wild wild woman" by and artist called Shawn harvey, it really grabbed my attention which is unusaul in this day and age...but heres the link for you to check it out:

<http://www.mssvision.com/VOD/038.asp#SHWWW>

its got a real sexy model in it called VALERIA DRAGOVA...shes a lodnon fashion model....and i think youll see shes a hot babe!!like xtina!!

the music is great too...its kinda a cross of rock n roll and dance and i hadnt heard this style before but its well cool!!

Anyway let me know whta you think as i thought it was really GOOD!!

i think the singers site is at <http://www.shawnharvey.com>

Anyway enough of that info....now whats your thinking to if xtina could cover this track ,maybe some lyrics changed but shes defintely a "wild woman" and maybe a great dance number for her!!

Thanks so much for adding those pics. :) That was the perfect thing to do. Right now we don't have an attachment feature, so the best thing is to upload them to our gallery and then just post the link here or use the "Img" code tag to display the pics here. Eventually we hope to have the attachment feature for the forum.

If you guys didn't see his pics, they are posted here <http://www.christina-a.net/gallery/s...y.php/cat/853/>. (smiley= 5:
